Jayson Rees-Hughes is new Business Development Manager at MAXHUB

As Business Development Manager at MAXHUB, Jayson Rees-Hughes has been responsible for the company's further expansion in the UK since May 1, 2023. MAXHUB is a brand of the CVTE Group and a provider of intelligent displays and UC solutions such as video soundbars, cameras and speakerphones.

In Jayson Rees-Hughes, MAXHUB has gained an experienced business development expert. He is also no stranger to the AV industry, in which he spent the last nine years of his career. Most recently, he worked for Elisa Videra, a global leading integrator of video conferencing and digital signage solutions. Thanks to his in-depth expertise, he is ideally suited to his new tasks at MAXHUB. In the role of Business Development Manager UK, he is responsible for opening up new markets, supporting and expanding the partner network, and providing project support.

“I am very excited about the new challenges, because MAXHUB consistently offers first-class products – from its displays to its UC solutions. The task now is to increase brand awareness and expand the partner network in the UK,” says Jayson Rees-Hughes.

“With the appointment of Jayson Rees-Hughes, we were able to add an accomplished expert to our team. In his professional career to date, he has proven his ability to open up new business fields and expand market shares. He truly is the perfect candidate for the position in the UK,” says Kevin Wang, Europe Sales Director at MAXHUB.
