MAXHUB enters cooperation with Dynamic CCTV Ltd.

MAXHUB, provider of innovative interactive display solutions and unified communication solutions for businesses, introduces its new partner for the UK. From now on, distributor Dynamic CCTV Ltd. will supply the UK market with MAXHUB's full range of smart workplace solutions.

MAXHUB is a brand of the CVTE Group, renowned for its leading display technologies. In 2021, the company began expanding into Europe. The company's portfolio includes innovative solutions for modern conference environments, offering everything from touchscreens to unified communication products, through to all-in-one LED walls and commercial displays.

MAXHUB and Dynamic CCTV Ltd. have cemented this cooperation in order to advance the expansion strategy. The distributor has been active in the CCTV sector since 1994 and enjoys an outstanding reputation within the industry. Firstly, this thanks to the company's renowned, innovative portfolio; secondly, the company provides an impressively excellent service and a fair price-performance ratio. The company has now set its course for expansion in the IT/AV market under the Dynamic Tech label, and is launching with MAXHUB's broad, innovative portfolio.

"I have used MAXHUB 1st Generation IFP in my old office back to 2017. At that time, I have noticed how easy and efficient my meetings can be for local presentation and conference calls using MAXHUB solution. So we are thrilled to partner with MAXHUB in UK to bring the cutting-edge solutions to more companies who want to embrace the new technology in their workspace. Exciting times lie ahead as we explore new horizons and continue to exceed expectations in IT/AV market." says Yu Ning, Managing Director of Dynamic CCTV Ltd.

"Dynamic CCTV is well known for its technical expertise and excellent service in the security industry for many years. We are delighted we have gained a distributor that perfectly suits our corporate philosophy. We are convinced that Dynamic Tech will be very successful in the IT/AV market. Stay tuned for more innovations and exceptional services from MAXHUB and Dynamic Tech." says Cathy Liu, Country Manager UK & Ireland at MAXHUB.
