James Jepson new Sales Manager UKI at MAXHUB

As the new Sales Manager UKI at MAXHUB, James Jepson will be responsible for the further expansion of the company in the UK and Ireland. MAXHUB is a brand of CVTE Group, offering adaptable solutions and diverse product ranges designed for different spaces, layouts, behaviours and budgets to provide targeted solutions including interactive displays, LED displays, commercial displays, MTR solutions and unified communications such as video soundbars, cameras and speakerphones.

With James Jepson, MAXHUB has gained an experienced AV professional for its sales team. He started his career in the IT services industry in 2009, before joining ViewSonic in 2017 as Business Development Manager. He spent more than five years there, rising to the position of Sales Director B2B & AV. Further roles followed at Northamber AV and most recently Sound Technology Ltd. The company is one of the largest independent distributors of professional audio technology, professional lighting and musical instruments.

"I am very excited about this new chapter in my career and the challenges it will bring. MAXHUB has consistently delivered first class products from its displays to its UC solutions. The task now is to increase brand awareness and expand the partner network in the UK and Ireland," said James Jepson.

"With the appointment of James Jepson, we have added an experienced professional to our team. Throughout his career he has proven his ability to develop new business and grow market share. His background gives him a broad knowledge of the industry, which will serve him well in his new role. He is truly the perfect candidate for the position in the UK and Ireland," said Cathy Liu, Country Manager UKI & DACH.
